

NATIONAL 4/5 HISTORY

Employers know the skills you have learnt in History will equip you well in whatever line of work you take up.

History is seen as a valuable qualification in many jobs - Law, Journalism, Broadcasting, Accountancy, Architecture, the Civil Service, Libraries, the Museum Service.

History can also create an interest and enjoyment which stays with you throughout your life.

The National 4/5 course enables students to acquire knowledge and understanding, evaluate historical sources, be able to explain the impact of historical developments, analyse factors contributing towards historical developments and draw reasoned conclusions.

The National course consists of 3 units:

- British History. The Atlantic Slave Trade, 1770 - 1807
- Scottish History. The Era of the Great War, 1910 - 1928
- European and World History. Hitler and Nazi Germany, 1919 - 39

At National 4 the course assessment consists of 2 components: a unit assessment for each unit must be passed and an Added Value Unit (a research project) must be completed.

At National 5 the course assessment consists of 3 components: a unit assessment for each unit must be passed; an assignment worth 25% of the final grade must be completed; and the final exam question paper.
